Preface

Much of our time in high school is spent Moving Up, whether it is from grade to grade or from teenager to adult. How quickly the years have passed since the seniors moved up from J.F.K. And how soon before they move up into the "real world." And there the process will continue.

The Echo '87 Yearbook serves to capture on paper the events involved in one year of Moving Up!

Dedication

In 1986 Miss Rose Porcello was named Connecticut's Distributive Education Clubs of America's "Teacher of the Year." Miss Porcello has been a leader of Enfield's D.E.C.A. for several years and her enthusiasm has been passed on to her students. Her leadership has helped the youth of Enfield attain their goals in the area of marketing, merchandising, and management. The 1987 Echo Yearbook staff is pleased to dedicate this issue to Miss Rose Porcello, a concerned teacher and friend.

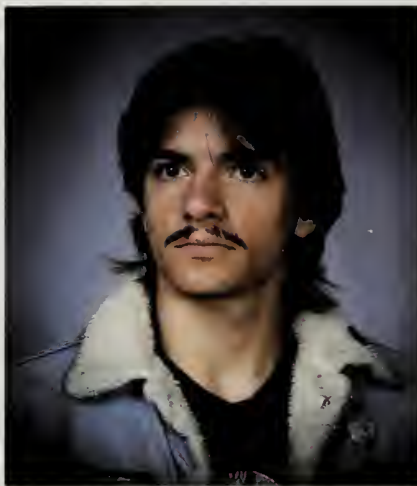

The future is not to dream about — it's to prepare for

Art

This was a dynamic year in the Art Department. The students were provided with the opportunities to acquire basic skills as well as difficult concepts. This enabled all individuals to exercise their creative abilities. Student art work was continually on exhibit throughout the building for the pleasure of the entire student body and staff. This has been a good year for field trips and guest speakers as wells.

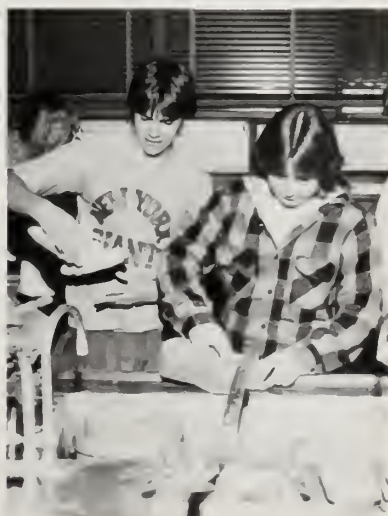

We know that this year, filled with change and challenge, has helped the students of Enfield High School to grow and develop their self-expression. We will miss all of you who are leaving us and hope you will carry fond memories of our Art Department.

Mrs. Barbara Kemnitzer

Mr. Newell Murri

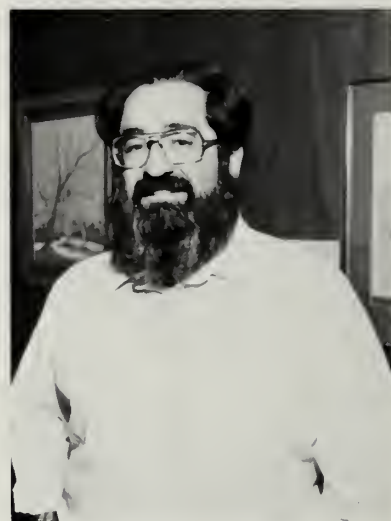

Music

Under the direction of Mrs. Tracy Carne, the instrumental music department offers a wide variety of performing opportunities. Courses include Marching Band, Jazz Ensemble, Concert Band, and several small chamber ensembles. These groups perform throughout the school year and have represented our town and school in and out of Connecticut.

The classroom curriculum is aimed at accommodating different kinds of students: the general student, who may include the History of Electronic Music in his studies, and the college bound, liberal arts and elementary education majors, who would study music theory and composition under the capable guidance of Mr. Leonard DeMaio.

Mr. Rocco Autorino, an accomplished vocalist in his own right, is in the director's chair when our mixed and select choruses take to the risers for a performance. The vocal class, which he conducts, helps the student gain confidence in other solo work, improve other vocal techniques, and realize the potential of his or her own voice.

Mr. Rocco Autorino

Mrs. Tracy Carne

Mr. Leonard DeMaio

Guidance

The Guidance Department, in concert with the other departments at Enfield High School, stresses the acquisition of skills and the development of habits concerning self analysis, decision making, and perspective analysis planning. The main goal is to guide the students in examining their abilities, capabilities, interests, attitudes, habits, and volitions.

There is a specific focus on students' approach to life and a life of learning through job career and college identification. Expansive resources are available for the students in these areas.

Business

The Business Department offers a variety of challenging courses that develop business skills, socio-economic understanding, exposure to current business trends to meet standards encountered in the office scene, and it encourages advanced studies beyond the high school level.

The Business Education Department focuses on a flexible, diversified, and exploring curriculum. The curriculum provides for work study and on-the-job training in the areas of office and marketing, where students in their senior year are released early to work in local offices and businesses, receiving wages and course credit.

Regardless of ethnic and economic backgrounds, we all share certain commonalities; we are all part of a family, and we are all consumers. However, many individuals do not have an opportunity to understand or develop the skills necessary to deal with problems related to self, family, and society in general. The department of Family Living and Consumer Education focuses upon the individual and seeks to develop self-awareness through a variety of courses dealing with many aspects of our personal and social lives.

Mrs. Margaret Fitzgerald

Mrs. Laurie Gorski

Foreign Language

The Foreign Language Department at EHS has continually encouraged students to study a foreign language not only to extend their knowledge of other cultures, but also to improve their potential in the world. In addition, the Foreign Language Department feels that learning other languages helps one understand and use his or her own language more accurately and effectively.

French, German, and Spanish are taught in an approach that is audio-visual with emphasis on the sounds of grammar patterns of the spoken language. Latin is also presented in a dynamic manner with audio-visual materials that help the student to develop a better cultural understanding of classical antiquity and its implications in the present.

As a result of the increasing number of students electing to take science offerings and because of the continually increasing importance of science in today's technological world, the Science Department of Enfield High School continues to emphasize and offer its established, multi-leveled and multi-purpose curriculum.

We, the staff of the Science Department, offer our congratulations and best wishes to this year's graduating class.

Social Science

The 1986-1987 school year was one of continual attempts to provide avenues for self-realization and self-fulfillment to students in social science class. The social science curriculum has been designed so that students may make choices, identify and understand the complexities of modern existence, connect meaningfully with their society, and formulate responsible value systems for life in a diverse world.

In recognition of the vital roles that mathematics and computers play in our lives, the Enfield High School Mathematics Department offers a varied and extensive program of studies. It is hoped that the students of the 1987 graduating class have gained an understanding of the relevance of mathematics and computers to everyday experiences and will pursue their studies to the highest level of their abilities.

Special Education

The Special Education Department of Enfield High is dedicated to providing a full continuum of programs and services for those students who qualify. These educational offerings have been developed for all special needs students and must be viewed as an extension of educational opportunities for them and must provide learning experiences based upon their needs.

In an attempt to meet the changing needs and interests of students, the Physical Education Department offers a wide variety of activities. These activities include many individual and team sports. Ninth and tenth grade students participate in a structured physical education program which includes team and individual sports. This prepares them for a more skilled selection of activities as juniors and seniors. Juniors and seniors are required to take physical education and also have an opportunity to select from a wide range of activities.

Industrial Education

Industrial Education provides an opportunity for students to explore and become acclimated to many modern industrial skills and techniques.

This program offers studies in the metal technologies, wood technologies, graphic industries, drawing techniques, electricity and electro-mechanics and automotives.

Basic, intermediate, and advanced courses are offered in all industrial education courses.

Raymond P. Linehan
July 20, 1968 — March 12, 1987

As educators we are always influenced by the students around us. Education is people. Yet, we cannot see students through high school until we can see high school through students. In Ray we saw a fine young man, a gentleman, and a friend. In him we saw happiness and an active participation in life. We will never forget that smile, that energy, that zest. We will never forget Ray Linehan, a very special friend.

Dan Michael, Assistant Principal
Administrative Advisor to the Class of '87

Activities

Enfield High has been very active in sponsoring exchange students for several years. This year we have four students from different countries, Australia, Japan, Spain, and Denmark, who have not only challenged us academically, but have become valued friends despite cultural and language barriers. Katrina Baiselev-Olsen sadly returned home to Denmark a little before Christmas, but the others remain to enrich our year here at E.H.S.

Second row: Steven Rigatti, Barb Lucas, Tracy McMullen, Kim Pych and Stephanie Olender. Third row: Michelle Dumais, Robert Rohr, Michelle Lathrop, Lauree Nuccio, Sheree Nuccio, Vicki Dean, Louise Leduc, Mike Pond and Suzzy Buck. Back row: Kurt Kress, Peter Arvantely, Mike Bison, Jim Parnell, Carrie Wood, Christine St. Amant, Lori Schaefer, Tracie Hall and Lori Thompson.

It's coming . . . it's coming . . .

It's here! THE MASCOT!

Mrs. Wojciehowski and Mrs. Dumais are advisors to a largely different Student Council this year. Due to a change in the constitutions of the Student Social Council and the Student Action Committee, the latter is now a sub-committee of the former. The two groups meet individually and jointly, and this year have funded dances, a slide show and a mascot for Raider games. The SAC this year has discussed such proposals of the Board of Education as the removal of Senior privileges and the motion to have proms in the gymnasium (still pending).

Distributive Education of America is a national club which is part of the Marketing Education course. A busy organization, the members attend educational conferences, compete in marketing related fields, and organize fund-raisers and field trips. These activities provide the students with an insight to the business community, thereby preparing them for the future.

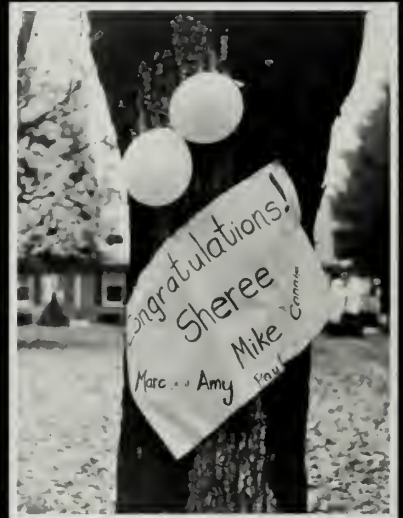

Fifteen DECA students participated this year in the District Career Development Conference. Among them were: Becky Capocci, first place, for Apparel and Accessories; Carmel Wheaton, second, for Restaurant Marketing; Tina Morse, first, for General Marketing; and Holly Engdahl, second, for Apparel and Accessories.

Amy Gynge, third place, Restaurant Marketing; Sharon Quesnel, third, General Marketing; Kim Sloan, fifth, Public Speaking; and Cindy Hall, fifth General Marketing. Also placing highly but not pictured are Amy Normile, Laurie Keegan, Mark Grillo and Michele Legere.

HOMECO

MING 1986

HOMECOMING 1987 ... big game, big dance, big worries ... months of work on float ... making papier-maché and paper flowers (a lot of paper flowers) ... class rivalry ... if someone plays Bon Jovi one more time ... at the dance ... flashing lights, "Twist and Shout," homecoming king and queen elected: Sheree Nuccio and Mike Foley ... (Sheree takes it very well) ... then to Nuccio home ... all-nighter to finish float ... staple runs at two a.m. to Edwards' ... chance to steal juniors' propeller but we are too nice ... grapes at three a.m. ... sturdy few make it all the way through the night ... newspaper pirate hats, squirting cars in the middle of Enfield street at six a.m. ... French toast and donuts ... Thanks Mrs. Nuccio for everything ... Tracy Spruill playing the piano ... showers ... spirit competition, making new cheers ... "Aye aye aye, the senior class is awesome," ... parade ... game ... half-time float competition decision: juniors win ... heartbreak for the rest ... Raider football victory over Rockville ... 14-0! ... going to catch some sleep ... our Senior Homecoming Weekend a memory ... but the weekend is just beginning ...

Eric Holter Artistic Director

The Enfield High Lamplighters 1987 production was of the Shevelove-Gelbart-Sondheim musical farce "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum," a risqué, uproarious journey back to Ancient Rome, involving, among other things, slaves looking for freedom, soldiers looking for mates, courtesans, maids, heroes, old men with missing children, soothsayers, and a gaggle of geese. Something familiar, something peculiar, something appealing, but most of all COMEDY tonight.

E.H.S. Band

The Enfield High Band, under the directorship of Mrs. Tracy Carne, is a staple of the school's activities. The Band attends all football games, marches in parades, participates in competitions and plays at school concerts, functions, and graduation.

JAZZ BAND, Top row, from left: Rick Dubiel, Mike Pieszky, John Lord, Jim Leach, Eric Johnson, Jim S. Parnell, Doug Twanosch and Mrs. Tracey Carne Band Director. Middle row: Mike Shermer, Roberta Prior, Seth Rudolph and Mike Smyka. Bottom Row: Elsie Ng, Christine St. Amant, Chris Tullock, Peter Arvantly, Louise Leduc, Sandy Metzler and John Link.

The EHS Band has many members singled out for outstanding musicianship. One such member is Peter Arvantly ('87), clarinetist, he was chosen to be one of 104 students from the United States (two for each state), District of Columbia and Puerto Rico) to comprise the 1986-1987 McDonald's Marching Band, which participated in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and in the Rosebowl Parade in Pasadena on New Year's Day 1987. A tremendous honor, Peter's recognition has given him a large amount of satisfaction and a myriad of free Big Macs.

Coach Dr. Frank Taylor searches for answers about the world's enigma, Ethelred the Unready, with Peter Arvantly.

Coach Mr. William Fogarty looks over the shoulders of Alternate Robert Rohr and Jim Maciolek.

Go "ASMW" Guys! Ray Rah!!!

The "As Schools Match Wits" team was chosen last year by coaches Fogarty and Taylor and prepared all summer over art books, almanacs and mushroom pizzas. In the fall the team played and defeated three worthy opponents: Northampton 255-125, Lee 300-40 and Longmeadow 205-185. The third victory entitled the team to enter the quarter finals in the spring, where they defeated Amherst Regional 205-185, thus entering the semi-finals. The results of that match were seen in early spring, 1987.

Advisors Mrs. Elizabeth Ogonis and Mrs. Laurie Gorski.

The Future Teachers' Club is an organization new to Enfield High School. Run by Mrs. Elizabeth Ogonis and Mrs. Laurie Gorski, it is comprised of a small but dedicated core of students, all of whom plan to enter the educational field in some way. The students are exposed to educational tools, methods and theories, creating a strong background for future careers.

Betsy Hoehn and Linda Vibberts play a lilting melody upon the keys of the music room piano.

Mr. Autorino's chorus is a large and diverse group of students brought together by a mutual love of singing. Students participate in concerts in the spring and winter, as well as graduation ceremonies. Many students are featured as soloists, and vie for select places in the All-State Chorus. A highlight of the year is the annual Elks' Club Christmas Concert, where this year Miki Horii and Katrina Baiselev-Olsen sang carols in their native languages, Japanese and Danish, to the delight of all.

Christine St. Amant and Michelle Lathrop prepare to burst into joyous song.

Literary Magazine — “Voices”

Advisors: Mrs. Doris Coughlin and Mr. Newell Murri

The Enfield High Literary Magazine is an old school tradition, but the magazine has a new name and format this year. Now called “Voices,” the publication came out this year in the spring but was larger than ever before. As always it contained the original drawings, poems, stories, essays and thoughts of EHS students and of the occasional brave faculty member.

"A good editor has no friends"

Joseph Pulitzer
Newspaper Publisher

Should an editor sacrifice the public's right to know to the interests of a friend? We don't think so

Yet to avoid embarrassing their friends, many news papers take the safe path and publish only stories that offend no one. A good newspaper is not bound by entangled loyalties that keep it from telling the truth

The Journal Inquirer has made its share of enemies. We're not afraid to touch a nerve or expose the selfish interests of those who would obscure the truth. In defense of the public interest, the Journal Inquirer digs deeper, challenges the powerful and shines the light of publicity on shadowy events

We decided, a long time ago, that we'd rather publish the truth — pure and simple — than make a lot of friends in high places

The JI tells it like it is. Somebody has to.
